

Idaho's Beautiful Backcountry Lodge Destinations

Many Northwest pilots already know about Idaho's legendary back country airstrips and the airplane camping that abounds there. But, there are also numerous beautiful lodge experiences for those who wish to fly and enjoy the great outdoors without worrying about the logistics and hassle of camping and cooking. In this session, we'll provide lodge and airstrip information at eight locations that welcome pilots and their guests—including several you probably never heard of before!

Directions: Room A. South Foyer.
